Effective Ways of Delivering Live Online Training

Outline

During COVID-19 pandemic many schools, colleges, universities and local authorities have moved courses, training and meetings online. This transition has been challenging for everyone involved, therefore extra effort and creativity is needed to engage learners, staff and parents to help them stay engaged amid distractions at home.

Description

This session will look at how to fully utilise interactivity features, include and devise online games, quizzes and other activities that promote learning and involvement.

You will learn how participants can collaborate and jointly annotate diagrams, use the whiteboard and work in smaller groups using the breakout rooms feature.

Outcome

By the end of this session you will be able to:

- Set up and optimise equipment for online training
- Understand online etiquette and safe practice
- Use PowerPoint/Beautiful.ai and share your screen
- Improve audience engagement
- Consider plug in's and add on's such as Slido, Socrative, Mentimeter, Padlet, and Ahaslides,
- Use different ways to collaborate and annotate diagrams
- Understand how to use features like the whiteboard, breakout rooms and chat
- Create polls, interactive quizzes, feedback and how to access via mobile phone and computer
- Ways to use online games, quizzes and other activities to promote interaction
- Create interesting and effective resources
