

Welcome to the All for Youth newsletter's Summer edition!

This inclusive newsletter is a way for you to share your voice with other children and young people across Westminster and Kensington and Chelsea.

In this bumper Summer issue you can:

- Discover holiday activities to keep you busy
- Read Ava's Summer of fun recommendations
- Find out ways you can get involved with All for Youth

We want to hear what you think!

Tell us what you think of the newsletter by filling in a short survey and be in with the chance to win a prize.

Summer Maker Challenge

Do you like making? Are you aged 14 to 18 and live local to White City?

If so, join Imperial College London on the free virtual Maker Challenge programme which teaches you how to make, design and create. Over six days during the summer, you'll learn design thinking, 3D printing, laser cutting, prototyping, coding and more!

The programme takes place Monday 2 August to Thursday 19 August from 10am – 4pm.

To find out more or to apply visit Imperial College London's website. If you would like help with your application, email makerspace@imperial.ac.uk

The deadline for applications is Sunday 18 July.

City Lions Summer challenges

This August, Westminster's City Lions are back with creative challenges to help you to #KeepCreative! They'll be launching a new challenge every Friday afternoon for you to complete across the week. From photography to design, there will be a challenge for everyone!

Each week you'll be in with a chance of winning a prize for first, second or third place including e-vouchers of your choice, tickets to The Serpentine and Westminster Abbey.

Sign up here to receive emails with the challenges and full information on how to take part.

Express Yourself

Express Yourself will be taking place at the Clement James Centre from Tuesday 2 June to Friday 31 July from 11am to 3pm. It is open to those aged 13 to 16 and will be a combination of interactive and creative activities including video making, song-writing and podcast creating. Please email wellbeing@clementjames.org to register.

Ava's Summer of fun
