‘Over all my son has had 2 amazing years with his teacher. Every child deserves a teacher like her. I have no words to describe what an amazing teacher she is who is so thorough with her job. She’s highly organised and puts such dedication and effort towards my son. My son has been able to achieve his goals of course with her amazing support and a home environment that is consistent with his educational and emotional needs. My son is a child who can write, type and is now addressing his basic needs through those two formats of communication.
