Bitesize training - Using visuals

Outline

A 2 part course (2nd part - 29th September) which will focus on the use of visuals in the classroom and in the playground. You will be able to provide consistent support for autistic children to develop their independence and inclusion.

Description

During the session we will look at:
- why visuals are so important
- suggestions of what to use in which situations
- age appropriate resources

DAY 2

The opportunity to review the use of visuals (covered in the first session - 15.09.22). You will have used and explored the use of visuals (appropriate to your situation and children you support). You can feedback and share successes, but also ask questions about further development.
- Sharing your successes when using visuals you have chosen
- The opportunity to ask questions - to further develop understanding or to discuss challenges

Outcome

- You will have a clearer understanding about the essential use of visual supports for autistic children
