SEND Training - The Bi-Borough Inclusion Service

Bitesize: What do Friendships Look Like for Autistic CYP?

Outline

During the session you will have the chance to reflect on what friendship means to autistic CYP, some barriers to social connection and some strategies to create opportunities for social connection and foster friendships.

Description

The first session will present ideas and pose some questions about what friendship might mean for autistic CYP. The second session (27th February) is a chance to comment on your own reflection following session 1, ask questions and share ideas.

Outcome

You will have some practical ideas about how you can foster friendship and social connection for your autistic CYP.
